MAY IS DECK SAFETY AWARENESS MONTH

The Virginia Building and Code Officials Association in conjunction with Building Safety week (May 3-9) is observing May as Deck Awareness Month. Some localities around the state, such as Charlottesville, are even offering free deck safety inspections. Deck failures due to poor maintenance or faulty construction can have serious consequences. With summer on the way, you'll be spending lots of time on your deck or porch. Make sure it's safe for your family and company. See the last page for some deck safety tips from VBCOA.
